Science Week

Thank you to all the parents who came into School last night to view all the work that had been done during Science Week.

Ladybirds have planted beans, Bumblebees have been doing experiments with ice and Dragonflies made ice cream in a bag.

Scooter Training

Dragonflies and Bumblebees have the opportunity to have Scooter Training on Wednesday 20 May. They have all come home with a letter that needs to be signed by a Parent agreeing to them taking part. If we do not receive a completed slip your child will be unable to take part.

Home Learning Questionnaire

Today we have been trying to catch as many parents as possible to get them to complete a questionnaire about what you have at home that would enable your child to take part in lessons from home if we do get told that we have to shut the School. Please make sure you ask for a questionnaire if you haven't already completed one.

Dear Parents and Carers

We are requesting that you complete this questionnaire to help us to understand what you need at home to enable your child to take part in lessons from home if we do get told that we have to shut the School. The questionnaire is attached to this letter. Please return the completed questionnaire to the school by the deadline date. If you have any questions, please contact the school. We will be happy to help you. Thank you for your support.

Please complete this questionnaire and return to the school by the deadline date.

Many thanks,
Sarah-Jane-Jones

Learning Overviews

Ladybirds - This week they celebrated Science week by planting broad beans, making slime and predicting which surface the car would travel down the fastest. They have started to read Jack and the Beanstalk. For Literacy they have been learning the oy sound. They have learnt about 3D shapes and used them in their construction activities.

Bumblebees - In Maths they have been doing subtraction within 20. For Literacy they have been hot seating doing a Q and A session about the Wolf and the Third Little Pig. For Science week they have been looking at the Greenhouse effect, Climate change and about the sea level rising. Also this week they have been doing some planting with Marks dad James of potatoes, strawberries and onions. In PE they have been doing team games.

Dragonflies - This week they have looked at 3D shapes and their properties. They investigated how they could make them using materials around them. For Literacy they started to look at the features of biographies in preparation to write a biography about Queen Elizabeth II. They have looked up the meanings of unfamiliar words in a dictionary so they knew what they meant. For Science they made their own ice cream and tasted it, great fun was had throwing the ice cream around to make it freeze with the help of ice cubes. They investigated what makes an object sink or float and made their own aluminium boats to test their theories. One the favourite experiments was making phone cups and seeing how sound travels through the air. They have been practising spelling common exception words which were given to all the Parents during Parents evening.
